GOOD THINGS WIN AT LAKESIDE.

Two propositions known to the turf as "good things" were put into circulation at Lakeside yesterday. They were up to promise and in consequence the goose of the ring was again cooked. That is as it should be.

"Rome" Respass had Paul Pry, the half brother of Poet Scout, fit and ready. The crowd backed the old horse—an animal of class and prowess—from 10 to 1 to 5 to 1. The other "hot one" was What Next, in the last race.

The Ryan party scratched Garland Bar and bet on What Next. They backed him from 20 to 1 to 5 to 1, and he won rather handily from Sidkel.

Besides the "warm members" three favorites won and the public got more than its share of the spoils.

The afternoon was pleasant and the track fast, but the crowd was small again.

Col. Clark repeated his official notice regarding "combination" bets. Here it is: "Bets made in the forenoon or previous to the time the official scratches are given out are void if any horses named in said combination are drawn. After the official announcement of scratches is made, though, the combination is pay or play."

HARLEM TRACK IN NEW HANDS.

The Harlem track has virtually gone into new hands. Yesterday P. Ryan, acting for Messrs. Anglin, Condon & Co., paid $70,000 and $2,650 interest on the first of two notes, the original installment upon which, $20,000, was paid last spring. The Ryan syndicate also assumed a $60,000 note due two years hence.

FORT ERIE TRACK IN NEW HANDS.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 3.—Walter O. Parmer today signed a lease for the Fort Erie track for a term of five years.

SOME CHEAP BOOKS OF FORM.

There are a few books of form from August 24, 1896, to May 22, 1897, with linen paper lettered index in Morocco covers for sale at this office at $7.00 per volume. First come first served.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Here is still another villainy in nomenclature. A fair colt by Fonso—Reveal, owned by J. H. McAvoy & Co., has run quite a few races this year and is known in the "official guide" as Henry of Franstamar. There is no origin for such a name, though the colt's owner has a right to use it, if he so chooses. It is evident that the colt was to have been named after the Spanish prince, Henry of Trastamare who figures in Doyle's noble novel "The White Company." So DAILY RACING FORM accepts the name and uses it—in the interest of the eternal fitness of things.

Tod Sloan's "mucking all over the track" landed Sandia in the Cambridgeshire and Meta II in the Free Handicap at Newmarket, Eng., Thursday last. After the young American's double victory the comment of English newspaperdom was more kind toward Sloan.

The St. Louis way is the way to deal with ringers and their operators. There is a strong law in nearly every state which makes ringing a criminal matter. The Little I Am conspirators are likely to be used as examples by the Fair Grounds Association.

Enquirer, Chicago, Ill.—The so-called Scully races are mere jokes. Their conditions provide that the winner shall retire from racing. Such conditions do not bind either owners or associations.

G. Moore, Chicago, Ill.—The English horse which started in the American Derby of 1893 was Strathrose, owned by the Duke of Beaufort.

In his work last Sunday at Ingleside Temperantious fell and was killed. Claude Burlingame, who was on his back, broke his leg when the mishap occurred.

Recreation, the great Burns & Waterhouse Stable's filly, has recovered from her sickness, while en route to California, enough to be sent to San Francisco.

The silly tale that Julius Bauer is to train for Bromley & Co. instead of Chas. Hughes is handled to the public by the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Buck Massie has landed safely in California. So has Tully Coulter's horses. Among the latter is that good and honest colt Daily Racing Form. John McCafferty is credited with intentions toward a Californian winter campaign during which he is to use Requitall.

Pannure is on the retired list for this year. So is First Mate.

Winner—Ch. h. 5, by Macduff—Albertha. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Satsuma, in the mellow going, outclassed his field. He is a horse of class when the footing suits. Dunboy ran a good race. Was well ridden. Quick is ready and can be kept in view. Polish had bad luck. He was cut off at head of stretch and near finish. Fortunate was shut off near start. Was coming at end. Princess and Cook were short and State outclassed.

Overweights—Fortunate, 44 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Midlothian—Red Rose. Start good. Won handily. Rose is a speed marvel. She was eased up until near the finish. Grady is fit. He ran a good race and finished strong. Throw this race out as to Joe. He was villainously ridden and cut off at head of stretch and near finish. Ball and The Ace ran improving races. Elsmore was out for an airing.

Scratched—Aquinas, 102.

Viking was the best. He is a bad actor, took the long route, was badly ridden and interfered with at start. J. O. C. was short. Monita is of no present account.

Scratched—Hyman, 151.

She was shut off at the start and head of stretch and badly ridden. El Salado was vilely handled, too, and swerved under the whip, after improving her position throughout. Watch Yule. She was cut off near the finish. Sorrow cannot handle weight and was short. Novia was always outrun.

Start good. Won driving. Terry was lucky and was well ridden. He is as game as a pebble too. Hermanita was best and should have won. She was cut off on the first turn and back stretch and had a generally rough journey. McLight wasn't ready. This race should fit him. He was badly handled too. Coda is ready but not in the right pace. Outaway was not in his class either. Remus is of little present account.

Off first break. Start excellent. Won with something left after an early drive. Paul Pry was played for a good thing and proved one. He was certainly the class of the race and finished full of running. Helen Wren, much used first part of it, tired badly at the end. She is a bad filly these days. Battledore ran a much improved race. He is ready to win. Galley West showed a lot of speed. The boy rode her all over the stretch. Virgie Dixon ran a fair race. She can win soon. Paul Pry will be hard to beat from now on in better company. He prefers a route, too.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third driving less hard; fourth eased up. Olivia L should have won. Stits did everything but fall off in the last sixteenth. Sutton was none too well handled either. Narvaez's finish was humorous. Assassin had a lot of bad racing luck. This considered, his performance was good. La Moore made up a lot of ground. With clear sailing she would have been a keen contender. Watch her, from now on. Jersey Lad stopped badly in the stretch. He is a coward. Santa Cruz ran to the notch.

 Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly. The next three were doing their best. What Next was played for a good thing and ran the best race. He was well handled and had something in reserve at the finish. Sidkel got the best of the start but the weight was too much for him to handle. Strathrol likes three-quarters best. W C T had no speed and ran a bad race. Ingomar was interfered with and sulked early, but finished like a lion.
